... than the "Windy City."

Originally founded as a trading post because of its natural portage, Chicago got its name from the Indian word 'chicagou', which means "strong" or "powerful."

Chicago is also the site of Fort Dearborn, built in 1803, but destroyed during an Indian massacre in the War of 1812. From the end of the war until 1871, the city grew in leaps and bounds. In that year the Great Chicago Fire broke out, raging out of control for three days and destroying almost all of the buildings. Within a few years Chicago returned to the economic life of the nation, rebuilt and stronger than ever.

A landmark in Chicago's development was the hosting of the 1893 World's Fair, commemorating the 400th anniversary of Columbus' discovery of America.

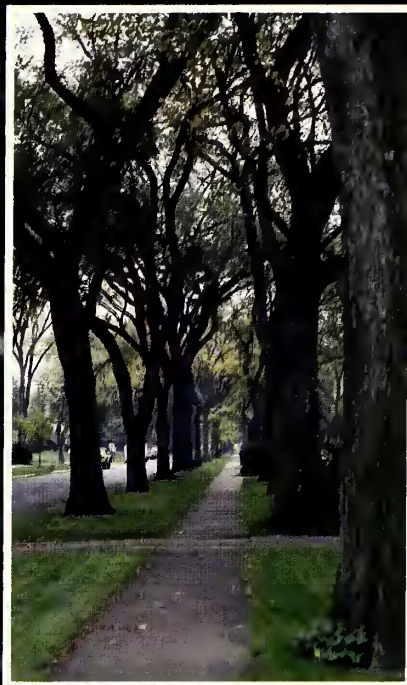

Today, Chicago offers a variety of educational, cultural, and recreational opportunities. Chicago has a number of colleges, universities, museums, theatres, and zoos. Chicago's business district has such attractions as the Sears Tower, the Merchandise Mart, and Water Tower Place.

Nothing Could Be Better

... than living minutes away from a multitude of cultural and recreational opportunities, yet nestled in a wooded residential area.

The village of River Forest was settled in 1886 around a thriving sawmill. In 1848, Chicago's first railroad engine, "The Great Western," made its initial run west to River Forest. The rail service lured more settlers, the forerunners of the present-day commuters. Today, several major thoroughfares intersect the village, yet the community still retains its quiet residential atmosphere.

MARY-MARTHA HALL

For Everything There Is A Season,

and a time for every matter under heaven: a time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up what is planted; a time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up; a time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance; a time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing; a time to seek, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away; a time to rend, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak; a time to love, and a time to hate; a time for war, and a time for peace.
Ecclesiastes 3:1-8

Preach The Word.

be urgent in season and out of season, convince, rebuke, and exhort, be unfailing in patience and in teaching. For the time is coming when people will not endure sound teaching, but having itching ears they will accumulate for themselves teachers to suit their own likings, and will turn away from listening to the truth and wander into myths. As for you, always be steady, endure suffering, do the work of an evangelist, fulfill your ministry.

2 Timothy 4:2-5

Nothing Could Be Better

... than Concordia's academic program.

Students are drawn to this campus, not only by the high scholastic standards, but also because of the personalized atmosphere. Concordia is concerned about YOU, from the minute YOU first express an interest in the college and throughout YOUR academic career.

In class, professors are noted for the particular concern they show for each student as an individual. Their dedication to education with a Christian perspective is exemplified in their willingness to advise, counsel, and explain, both in and out of class.

A few years ago, Concordia changed its name from Concordia Teachers College to Concordia College. And with good reason. While this institution was founded primarily for the training of full-time church workers in the Lutheran Church — Missouri Synod, the objectives of Concordia have taken on added dimensions over the years. Students have expressed the need for general education in a Christian setting. Concordia has expanded to meet that need with a liberal arts degree program. Twenty-two majors are offered in a wide range of disciplines. One of the newer majors, in the liberal arts program, is Computer Science. The program is designed to provide in-depth understanding of theoretical principles, along with practical experience.

Concordia is not just a teachers college any more. Concordia is the college for anyone wanting a college education with a Christian perspective.

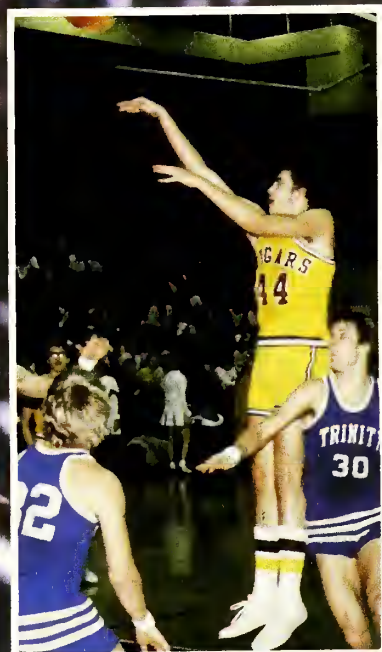

Nothing Could Be Better

... than the enthusiasm for intramural and competitive sports at Concord.

Nothing Could Be Better

... than the ordinary, everyday things. Ten years from now, we may not remember the daily academic grind. Instead, our richest memories will be of friends ... sticky moving-in days ... sad moving out days ... SAGA's picnics ... "steak and shrimp" nights ... "care" packages from home ... playing frisbee in the triangle, and raquetball in the showers ... intramurals ... dances and concerts, Friday night movies, Petersen's, Denny's, Wedge, ice cream socials, popcorn parties, all nighters, tests, papers and finals, the "Specky" on Fridays, Saturday afternoon football games, Worship on Sundays and Chapel during the week, Skittle-Bowl in KCC, Monopoly games, card tournaments, MASH, mailroom traffic jams, no t.p. over the weekend, beautiful autumn colors, winter snowball fights, stuffed animal collections, guitar sing-alongs ...

These are the special memories of Concordia, the things which come vividly to mind when we reminisce about the days and years when we called Concordia "home." They are the ordinary things.

Everyone Really Goes All Out To Welcome You

"People at Concordia really care! That is the message that came through even before I reached campus. The Cougar Cub system and Orientation week really set the campus apart from other colleges. How can anyone not like Concordia, when everyone really goes all out to welcome you?" — Deb Roth Orientation Week for freshmen and transfers, Freshmen Camp, Registration, Campus Awareness, moving in, buying books, seeing old and new faces, first day of class . . . all sound familiar? Yes, that was September 1982. "Be bold to enter into the presence of God," President Paul Zimmerman said to the students, faculty, and staff at our Opening Service for the college's 118th year September 13. His sermon was based on Hebrews 10:19-25. And, six professors joined Concordia — Randal Becker, Gary Bertels, Anita Briedis, Colleen Chalmers, Martin Homan, and Carol Jabs. They were installed along with staff members, Mark Gruenwald, Marisa Heino, and Engeborg Teske.

The 1981-1982 academic year was up by 6% with 1038 undergraduates including 52 freshmen enrolled in the Lutheran General Nursing Program, 182 graduate students and 51 others. To head up the student body were our Ex-Comm Officers: President Bill Tucker, Darla Schmidt, Sheryl Vestal, Rick Laubenstein, David McClean, Peter Bender, Linda Mock, Griff Nielson, and Denise Goeman.

Some missed faces on campus were those that were interning, a part of the Director of Christian Education and Deaconess programs. DCE's: Betty Hamer, to Kansas City, Mo., Brian Jensen to Scottsbluff, Neb., Craig Oldenburg to Three Lakes, Wis., Lauri Reid to S. Milwaukee, Wis., Daniel Sievert to Forest Park, Ill., Mark Sochowski to Naples, Fla., Gene Stattman to Fall Creek, Wis., Darla Stroup to Cary, Ill., and Lisa Wolfanger to Kingston, Ill. Deaconesses: Irene Cambell to Plymouth, Ind., Carolyn Ranker to Watertown, Wis., Kathy Schwan to Garner, Ia., Darcy Ewald and Jean Bright to Winfield, Kan., Phyllis Kassel to Granite Falls, Minn., Bonnie Nicol and Cay Friedline to Ft. Wayne, Inc. and Cathy Collins to Bay City, Michigan.

Homecoming . . . That Time That Could Only Happen Once.

"You know those times that could only happen once, that are SO special and SO exciting . . . that they're hard to remember! For me, Homecoming was just that — a really special honor that I've treasured away." — Linda Wingfield

The biggest event in October was Homecoming. Activities included an ice cream social, talent show, pig-out, slave auction, vespers, court dress-up day, honor sports day, a pep rally, maroon and gold day, coronation, and the football game in the mud 12-7 against Eureka. It was on October 16 that Miss Linda Wingfield was crowned Concordia's queen. Cheryl Skibbe was first runner-up and Lynn Trinklein was second runner-up. The other Court members were Kathy Ebert, Karen Oswald, Sharon Stellwagen, and Marsha Wink. "Many people put a lot of love into Homecoming," according to Queen Wingfield.

"Nothing, could be better" than the senior class choice of Homecoming Queen . . . Miss Linda Wingfield!

The Prince And Cinderella Were Fantastic!

"I thought Cinderella's Dream was fantastic. The King and Queen stole the show. The Prince and Cinderella were fantastic!"

Artists of Concordia Theatre presented this play and several others this year. In October, Cinderella's Dream played for two weekends. This production was a musical adaptation of Grimm's fairy tale. The music was composed and arranged by Kathryn Krause and the book and lyrics were written by Professor Fran Sims. The King and Queen were played by L. Don Swartz and Linnae Heinz. The Children's Hour came to Concordia the first two weekends of November. In it, Beverly Zschiegner and Sheri Corporan were the two young women who ran the boarding school. Carol Jeske, a boarding school student, tells a lie and ruins the wishes and dream of the head-mistresses.

ACT's performances continued throughout the year. They included Red Riding Hood and All That, directed by Professor Eunice Eifert in February, Ten Little Indians in March, and Man of La Mancha in May.

Jennifer Honey, as Cinderella, and Peter Senkbeil, as the Prince, starred in ACT's production of "Cinderella's Dream," written and directed by Prof. Frances Sims.

Anyone Have A Quarter?

“My thanks go to those responsible for getting this marvelous, delightful, and challenging (not to mention addicting) video game; however, the purchaser obviously disregarded the average Concordia student’s budget! Anyone have a quarter?” — Jim Egan, a Pac-Man addict

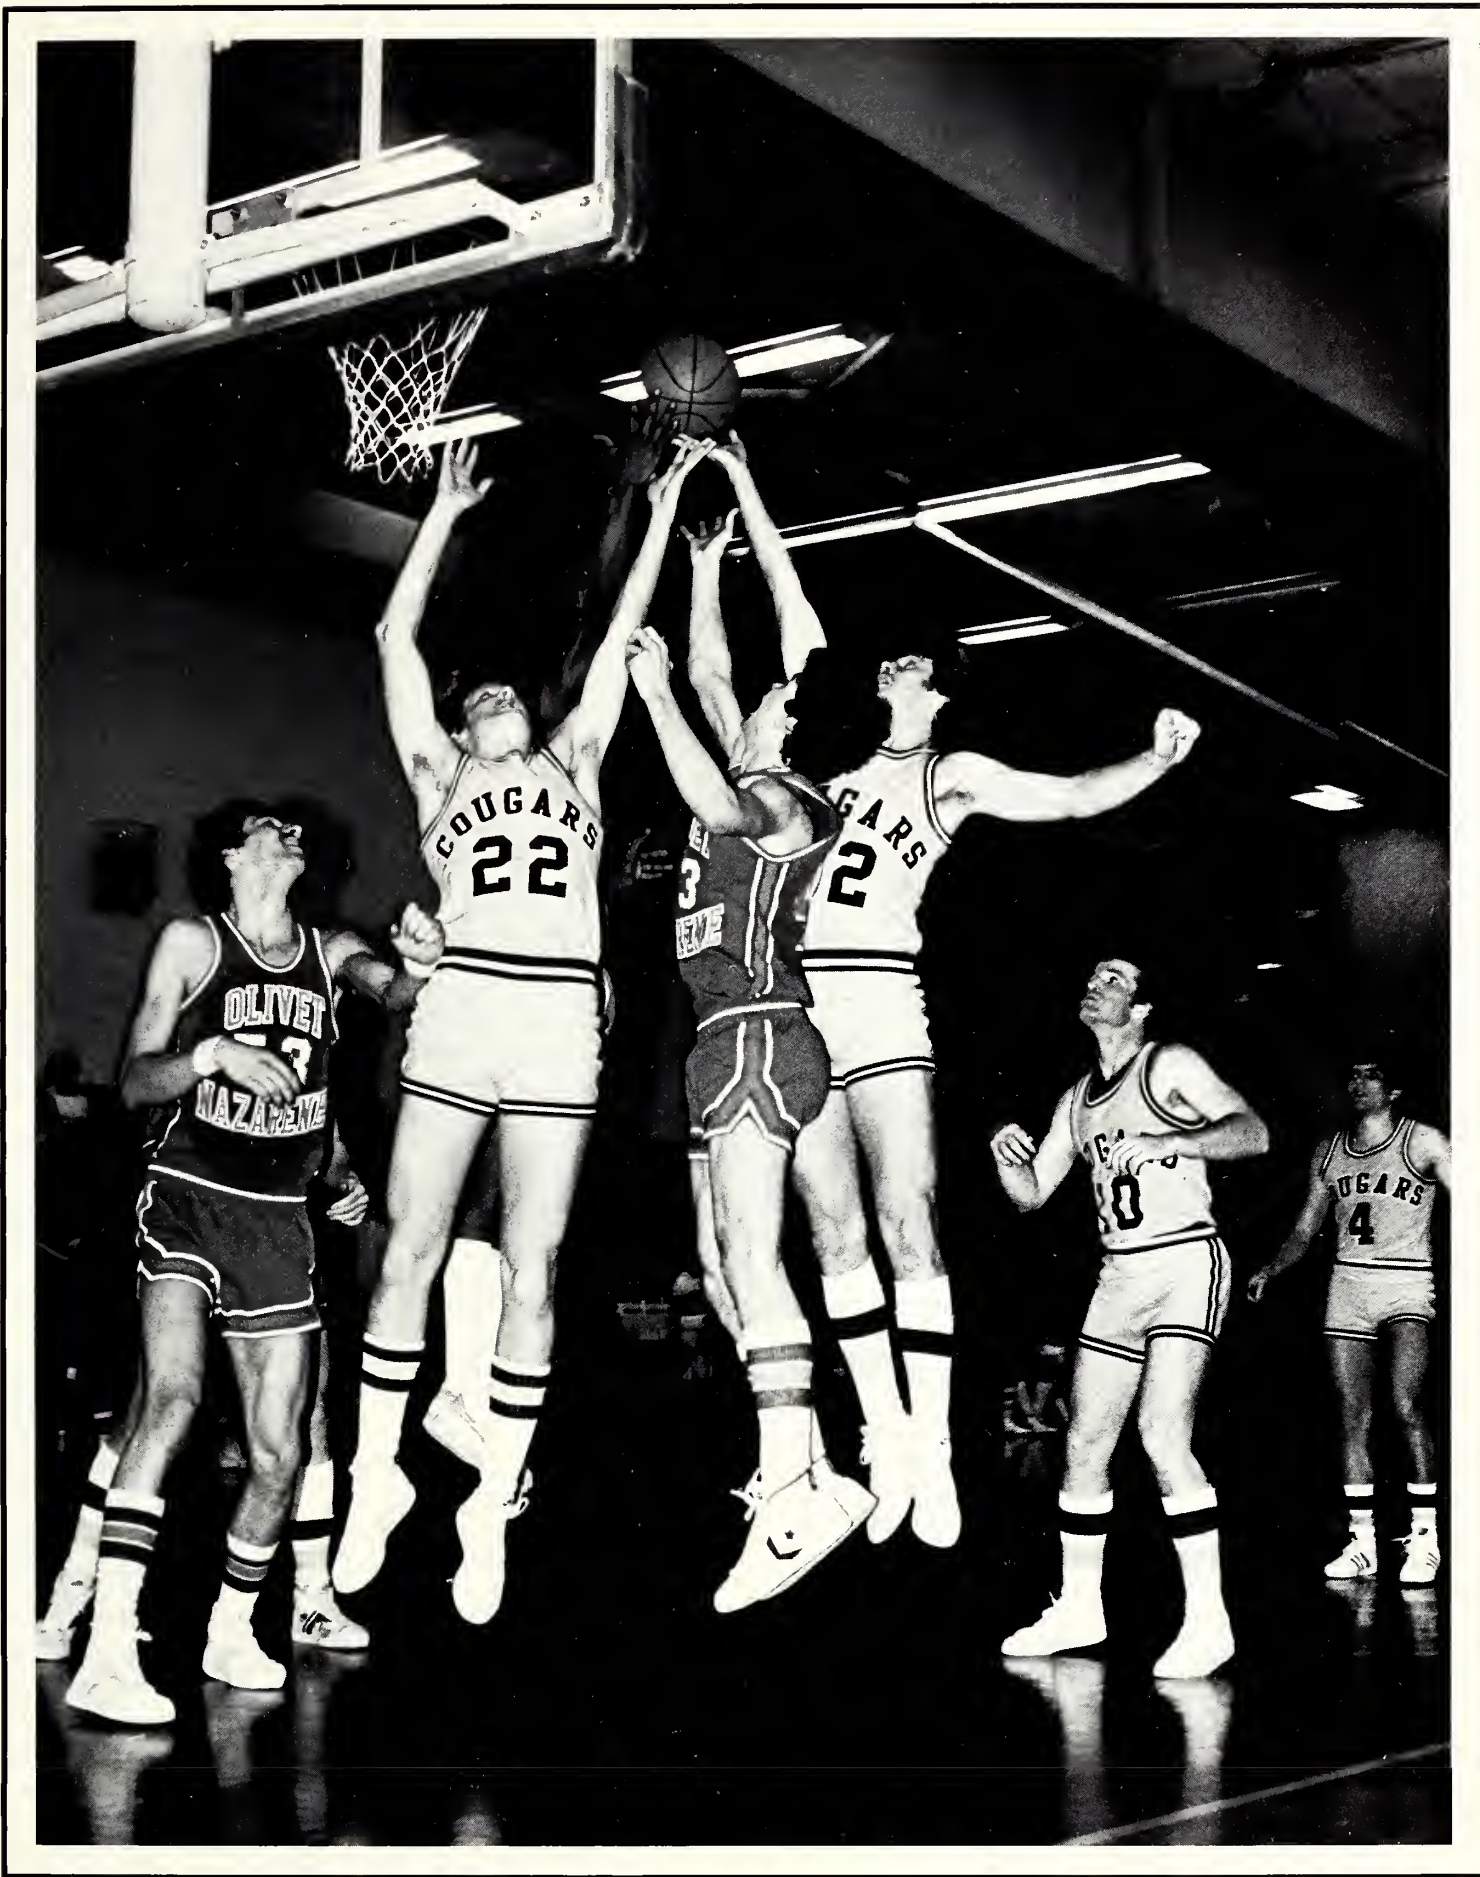

In December it seemed to basketball and preparing for C.I.T. or depositing quarters into a video game in K.C.C. Bob Libka was responsible for these four new electronic games. It’s been the glory of any Concordia student to beat Carl Knorr’s score of 1,259,190 on Pac-Man.

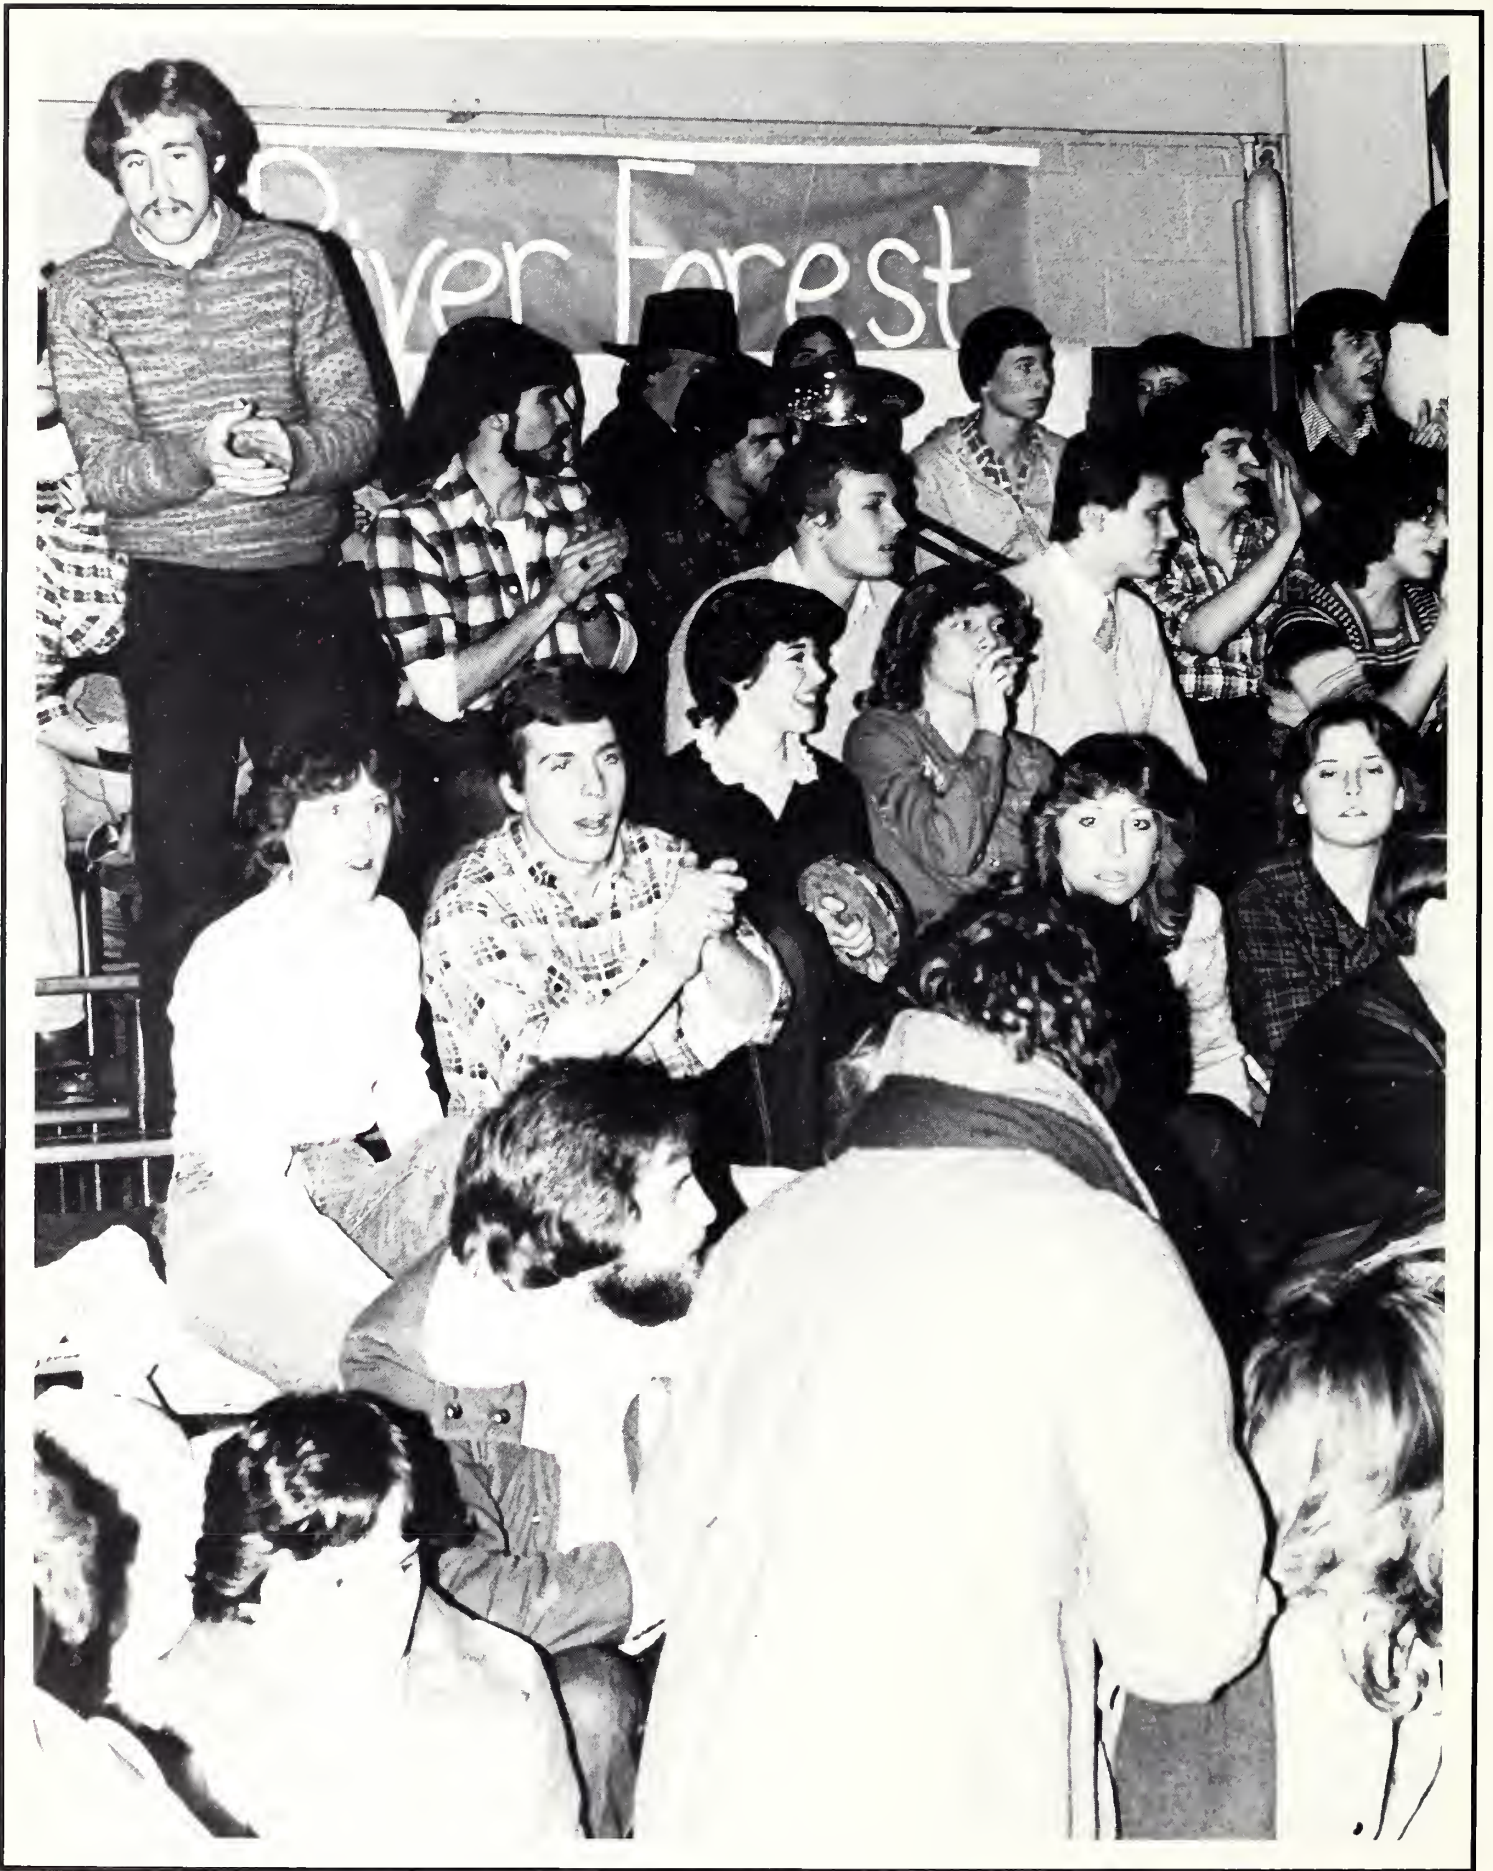

Also this month was the 9th annual Christmas Craft show, with over 70 exhibits, according to Jane Diesing, the Craft Show Director. Again Handel’s Messiah was presented by the Festival Chorus on December 13.

During December Gwen Davis was appointed Interim Dean of Students and, later in the year, Dean of Students while Marge Gruber took over the position as Housing Director. The days lingered on as we waited to go home for Christmas but stocking stuffing, the Christmas banquet, and Midnight Breakfast kept us spruced up for the holidays.

Brian Becker (22) and Tom O'Hara (12) to up for the offensive rebound playing against Olivet Nazarene.

Winning C.I.T. Was Great!

“It was really a thrill to be a part of the C.I.T. excitement this year! Winning the tournament was great and the Christian sportsmanship shown by all was fantastic.”
— Janet Ingold

The 1982 Cougars made it four in a row by defeating Seward on the Concordia St. Paul court. Jon Shiley led the way by collecting 32 points and 10 rebounds and earned the Most Valuable Player award for the tourney. Reinking and Shiley were both named to the All-Tournament Team. The C.I.T. championship marked the high point of Coach Faszholz' Cougar basketball season and they ended with a 10-16 record. The Kittens placed second at C.I.T. Concordia, St. Paul captured their third straight Concordia Invitational crown by defeating the Kittens, 51-49. They went on to take second in their division and closed their season at 15-11.

Concordia crowd cheers the Cougars on to victory at C.I.T. The 1982 Cougars made it four in a row by defeating the Seward Bulldogs 88-73.

Will The Snow Ever Stop?

“These sub-zero temperatures make me really miss my home in Pensacola, Florida. Will the snow ever stop?” — Paul McCain

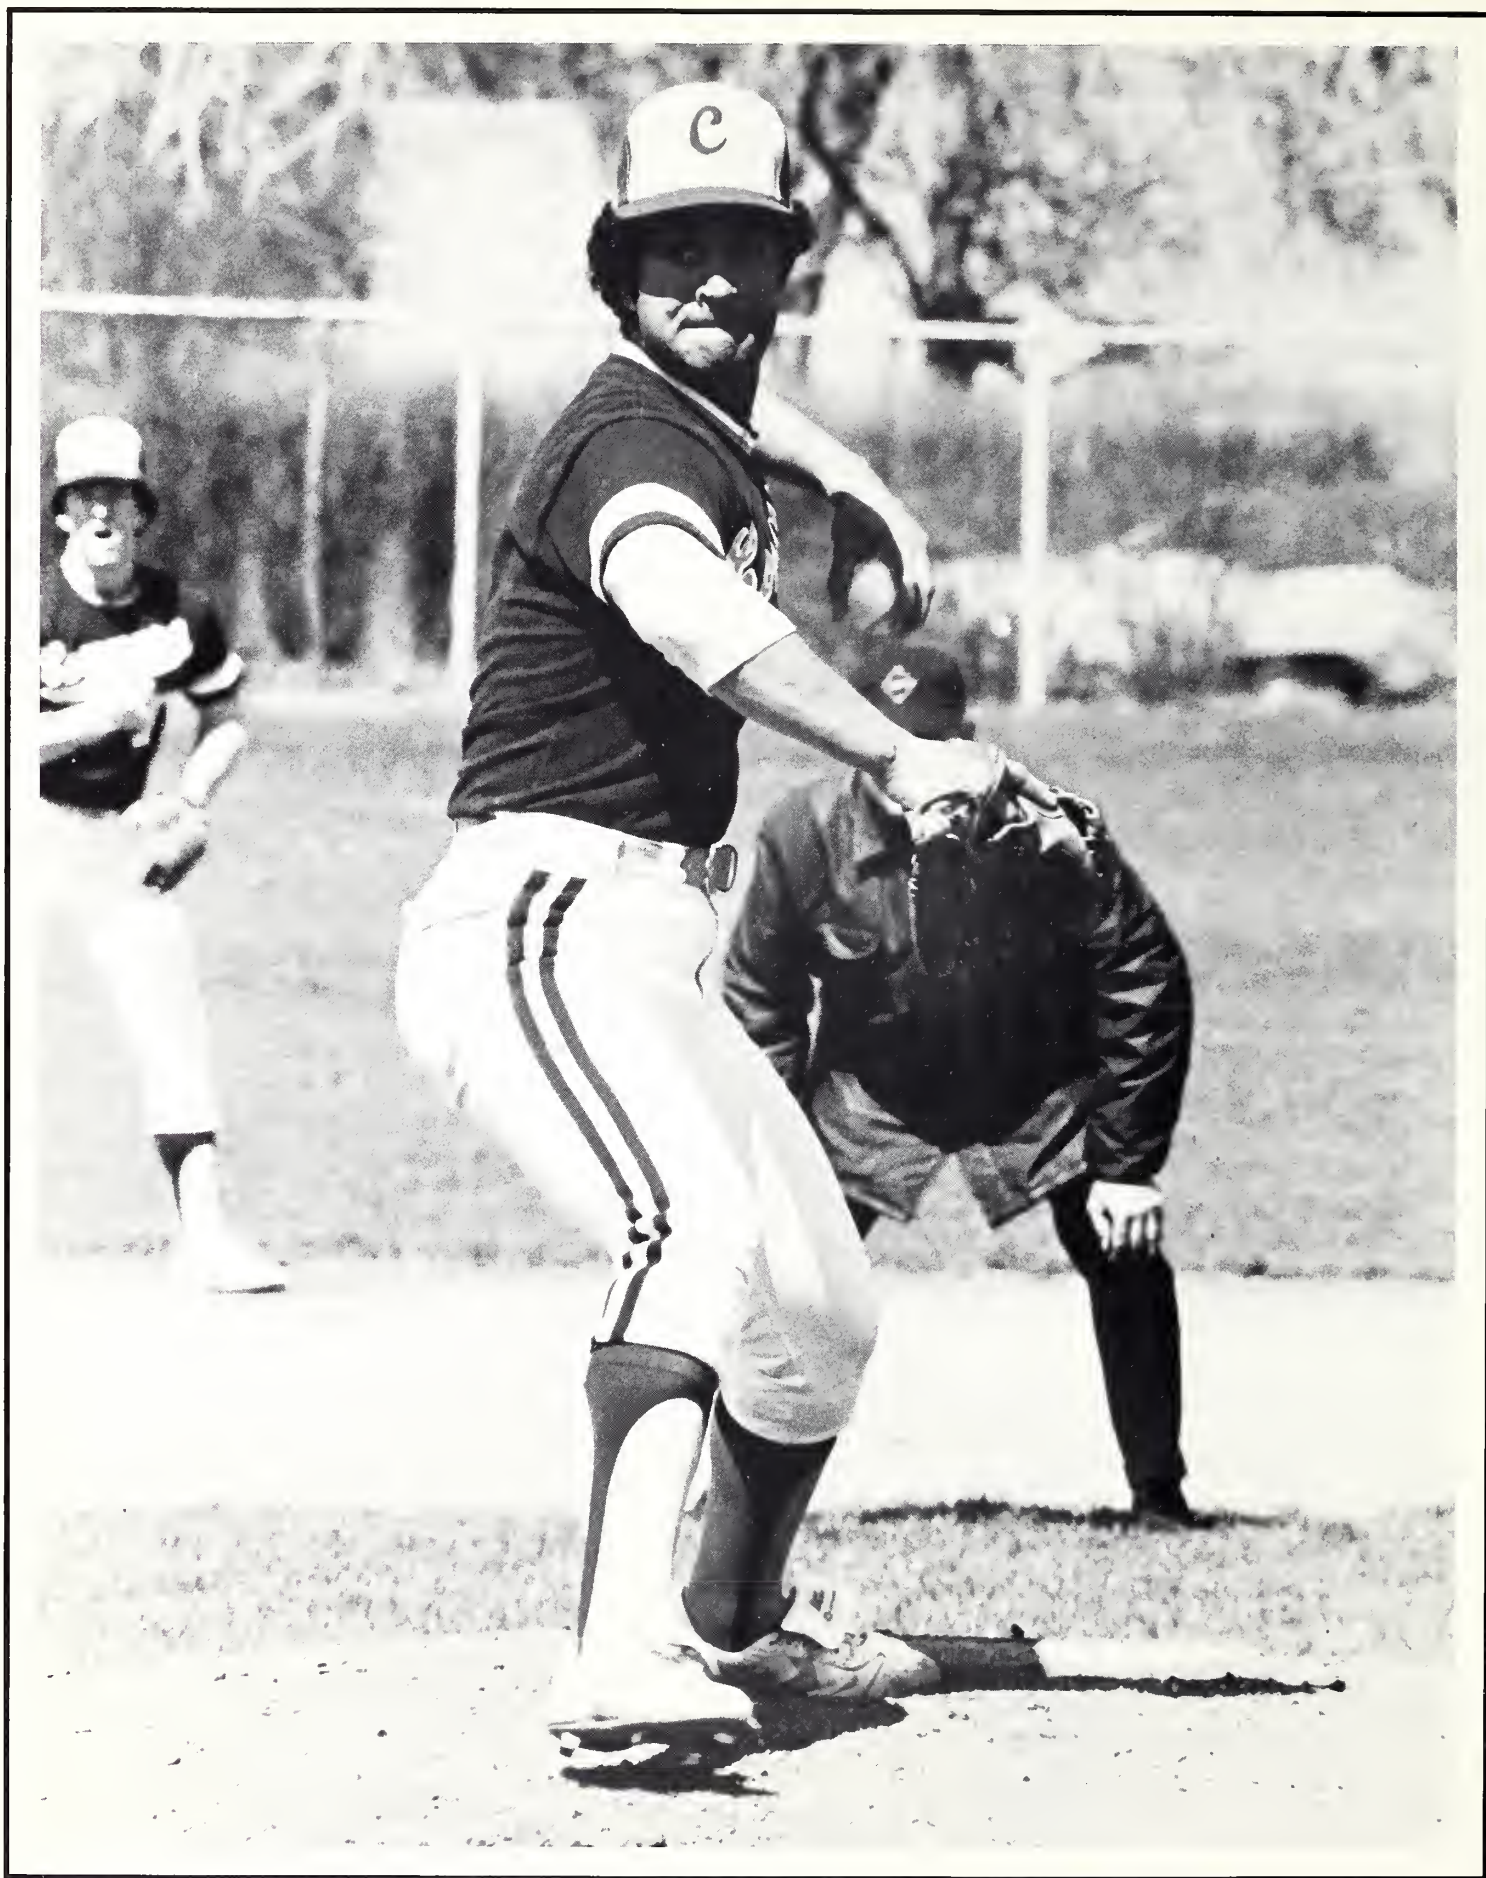

Yes, the chill factor was below 80, for several days too. We were all wondering if it would ever end. Remember bundling up to go to class — that is, if you did make it to class — or remember building snowmen and having snowball fights and coming in for some hot chocolate?

Recall those frigid January 1982 days? Wind chill, 80 below! Continuous snow!

It's Wonderful To Be Outdoors

"After being cooped up inside all winter (especially this winter!), it's wonderful to be outdoors. I think that's the best part about spring sports, but even just playing frisbee in the triangle with friends is great." — a spring athlete

With March came nice weather and spring sports starting up — men's tennis, baseball, softball, and track. Whether conversing with friends or studying outside, it was a beautiful month at Concordia. And, Kapelle and Band members were happy to be back from their tours over spring break. The 59 Kapelle members presented concerts at Lutheran churches in Indiana, Ohio, Michigan, and Illinois and at some Detroit area Lutheran high schools.

This was the 23rd tour Dr. Thomas Gieschen directed. In Professor Richard Fischer's eighth year touring and conducting, the Band presented their concerts in Pennsylvania, Maryland, Virginia, Connecticut, Massachusetts, New York, Michigan, and Illinois.

Pitcher Bob Peara is in the wind-up for the Cougars.

Graduation Has Brought With It Joy, Excitement, And Sadness

"One of the most amazing things for me is that no matter how much I worry, or fret, or plan, everything works out according to God's will. For me, this is both happy and sad; a time that calls for trust in my Lord, knowing that He will make His will known to me in due time. I've had to face the fact that I may not be able to teach next year, and that's not easy. I had looked forward to beginning my ministry. But now I realize that living my life in a Christian manner and doing everything to His glory is what the word "ministry" is really all about." — Cindy Bogenpohl

"Graduation has brought with it joy, excitement, and sadness. It means I must leave the shelter of Concordia. These days have given me memories that will always be a part of me. I have grown closer to my Lord, my family, and many special people. Yet, I am confident that the Lord will be with me and also with those very special people from whom I must be separated."

— Sherrie Kirst

1. Various expressions on the faces of some of the members of the Wrestling Auxiliary reflect the variety of actions in a typical Concordia wrestling meet. 2. Using a wide range of talents, the Foresters share the Word of God through spirit-filled song. 3. A behind-the-scenes look at the Kapelle reveals that the perfection with which they perform does not come with ease, but with many hours of rehearsal. 4. Nancy Dellamano, David Thies, and Mary Brown sing while Jeffrey Schwandt plays guitar, and the special CYM team Living Water brings others to new life. 5. Surely the freshmen will remember the Education Seminar at Freshman Camp. Here the girls on the staff let their real selves come through. 6. In "The Children's Hour," these members of the Artists of Concordia Theater perform with utmost emotion and expression. 7. The members of the Music Educators National Conference go nuts after posing seriously for their yearbook picture.

Fun and Friendship
Belong Together

Moving from Buckingham Fountain, the center of Chicago, to Bonnie Brae and Augusta in River Forest, the Pillars staff hopes we highlighted moments off-campus for you as well as those most special times together right here at Concordia.

I would like to express my thanks to those individuals that gave the staff support, guidance, and help throughout the production of the 1982 Pillars. The planning stages went smoothly with the help of Joan Wangerow and Bob Libka during the summer months, President Zimmerman, and our fine Taylor reps, John Harrold and Ken Nemsick. I was so pleased to begin our first year with Taylor Publishing Company. After Rich Richter's acceptance as our Advisor, he plunged into work printing the opening color section. His long hours in the lab helped cut expenses for which I'm very grateful. Mr. Milas of Milas Studio, Rev. Lange, Stella, and Bob Preloger and Gregg Braun were helpful with suggestions, ideas, and providing senior portraits. And, without S.A. Photo Lab, we certainly would not have been able to have this yearbook. Coordinator Paul McCain and his photo lab staff were extremely important to me to the very end — thanks Bruce! Paul, I really appreciated all your long hours in the dark room, your dedication, and the beautiful prints you provided, your ideas, and for making this the very best of my college years.

Staff, you were always willing to assume extra responsibility, run errands, give up your own activities, and make Monday meetings — even though I managed to be late! Thank you for the creativity and time you put into your sections. A special thank you goes to Mary Bergen, Judy Mindy, Peggy Sawitzki, Jan Volkert, and my Assistant Editor, Tina Yerkey, who helped in those crucial times mid-stream. And, Jon Kohrs, Mary Brown, and Debbie Corning, and Deb Roth you all did such an excellent job with your sections. Deb Roth, the opening is great! For all your patience and help during my student teaching spring quarter, thank you staff! Because of the team spirit that developed, this yearbook will have special meaning to us. The 1982 Pillars will serve as a reminder of our times together. I hope that it will do the same for you, and bring back many fond memories of your own college experiences . . . memories which you can treasure in years to come. "Nothing could be better" than CCRF.

To the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ,
Your Editor, Lynn Grunow
